Over 50 years ago in the loving home of Theresa and Jim Giannilli the beginnings of "Gino Giannilli's Homestyle Pizza and Restaurant" was born. With their large family and Italian heritage and upbringing, Theresa made everything from scratch. She was a master cook and baker. From spaghetti and meatballs to giant loaves of fresh baked bread and her famous Friday night pizzas, she lovingly prepared all this and much more for Jim, herself and their eight children. As you may know, love and family are synonymous with the Italian way of life and it was a common occurrence for extended family members and many friends to drop by around suppertime for the delicious food Mom was so well-known for. So, in 1979 when we first opened our doors, Mom and Dad were there to help. Mom did the cooking and showed us the way, while Dad baked the bread and made sure everything was clean as a whistle. For more than 30 years, we are all still preparing your meals with great pride, just like Mom!

At "Gino's" it's a labor of love!
